

Conference - 29 and 30 March 2018

Constitutional Challenges in the EMU

The New Instruments of European Economic Governance

Free entrance

ULB - Institute for European Studies
Avenue Roosevelt 39, 1050 Ixelles
Thursday 29 March: Spaak Room
Friday 30 March: Geremek Room

Constitutional Challenges in the EMU: the New Instruments of European Economic Governance

Programme

THURSDAY 29 MARCH 2018

9.30am – 10am: Welcoming of the participants

10am – 12am: Les politiques d'austérité dans l'Union

President: Arnaud Van Waeyenberge – Associate Professor at HEC Paris

Cécile Barbier – European Social Observatory – Université Saint-Louis-Bruxelles
La constitutionnalisation de l'Union européenne au-delà des régimes constitutionnels nationaux: le cas de l'austérité budgétaire

Agathe Rivière – PhD Researcher at the University of Strasbourg, Institut de Recherches Carré de Malberg

Les politiques d'austérité devant la Cour de justice de l'Union européenne

Michel Van Huffel – Legal Secretary at the General Court

12pm – 13pm: Lunch

13pm – 14.30pm: Lecture

Federico Fabbrini – Professor at the Dublin City University

14.30pm – 14.45pm: Coffee Break

14.45pm – 16.15pm: The European Central Bank in Times of Crisis

President: Pauline Bégasse – National Bank of Belgium

Valentin Jadot – Lawyer and economist

Central Banks Independence and Stability of the Monetary System: Unravelling Tangled Threads

Ute Lettanie – PhD Researcher at the University of Antwerp

The ECB as Agent or Trustee in Times of Crisis?

Charikleia Vlachou – Lecturer at the University of Orléans

The Constitutional Challenges of the Agencification Process in the context of the Banking Union

16.15pm – 16.30pm: Coffee Break

16.30pm – 18pm: New Paradigms in the European Economic Governance

President: Louise Fromont - F.R.S.-F.N.R.S. PhD Researcher at the Université libre de Bruxelles

Areg Navasartian – Researcher – e-learning National Active Charter Training Project

The Role of Social Rights in Economic Governance

Sergio Maia Tavares Marques – Lawyer and scientific collaborator at the University of Minho

Reshaping Euro's Social Market Economy through EU Constitutional Values

Marijn van der Sluis – Assistant Professor in EU Law at the Erasmus University Rotterdam

The Future of Rules-based Economic Governance: A Historical Approach

Friday 29 March 2018

9am – 11am: Le futur de la gouvernance économique européenne

President: Emmanuelle Bribosia – Professor at the Université Libre de Bruxelles

Frédéric Allemand – Researcher at the University of Luxembourg

L'avenir de la gouvernance économique : aspects constitutionnels, juridiques et politiques

Emanuel Castellarin – Professor at the University of Strasbourg

Du MES au Fonds monétaire européen ?

Olivier Clerc – Lecturer in Public Law at the University of Corse – Pasquale Paoli

De la « gouvernance économique » au « gouvernement économique » : le scénario de l'intégration de la zone euro